2. One day Daddy and I went out for a walk. On the way, we saw a lot of people. We went up and had a look. Oh dear! What did we see? There was a donkey(驴) in the middle of the road. It would not move. The cars and buses could not get past.

Then a policeman came. "Whose donkey is this?" he asked. "It's mine, " said a farmer, "but I can't move it. " The policeman and the farmer did their best to move the donkey, but it would not move. We laughed, but the drivers of cars and buses were worried. "We can't move the donkey, " the farmer and the policeman said. "What shall we do?"

"Give him a carrot!" my father said.

"That's a good idea!" said the farmer.

Soon he found a carrot and showed it to the donkey. When the donkey saw the carrot, it jumped up and walked after the farmer. All the cars and buses could get past at last!

3. Peng Liyuan, First Lady of China made a speech in English at the United Nations(联合国) on September 26. She talked about education and shared her Chinese dream with the world. Peng began the speech with a story of his father. Her father grew up in a small village in China. In those days, not many villagers could read, so her father opened a night school to teach them. With his help, many people learned to write their names and read newspapers for the first time. And many women were able to teach their children how to read. Peng's father's love for education influence(影响) her deeply. She was lucky enough to have a good education. Later, she followed in her father's footsteps and became a professor of music. Education is important, but still, some children in China can't go to school. Peng hopes that all children, especially girls, can have a good education, and that is her Chinese dream.

1. What language did Peng give her speech in at the United Nations? _____
A. Chinese B. English C. French D. Russian
2. What's the main topic(主题) of Peng's speech? _____
A. How to keep the air clean. B. People should read more books.
C. Education and her dream. D. Her study and her father.
3. How did Peng's father help the villagers to learn to read and write? _____

C. She became a professor of music. D. She learned from his father.
5. What's Peng's Chinese dream in the passage? _____
A. Chinese people can become richer. B. All the Chinese children can go to school.
C. All the students can read and write. D. People can realize their Chinese dreams.

4. Many people enjoy watching movies in a cinema. They think the cinema has a better atmosphere(气氛)to enjoy the movie. However, I think people are happier and freer when watching movies at home.

Watching movies at home is more comfortable. To watch movies in a cinema, you have to buy the ticket before you go there for a better seat. However, there is no need for people at home to worry about the ticket. They can enjoy movies at any time they like and with the most comfortable seat.

What's more, people watching movies at home wouldn't have to face any traffic problem. It is free to watch movies at home. In the cinema, we cannot go outside and do something else because the movie won't wait for us. Sometimes, if we miss part of the movie, we cannot follow the story. At home, we can pause(暂停) at any time and go back to watch the part.

All in all, a cinema is a good place to watch movies, but it isn't the best place to enjoy the movies. I think watching movies at home is better.

1. What does the writer think of watching movies at home? _____
A. Boring. B. Enjoyable. C. Interesting. D. Difficult.
2. What is NOT the reason for the writer's watching movies at home? _____
A. Save more time on the road. B. Don't worry about the ticket.
C. Feel happier and freer. D. Have a better atmosphere
3. Which has the same meaning with the underlined word "miss"? _____
A. That's all, thank you Miss Green.
B. He missed his watch and looked for it everywhere.
C. The hotel is just on this road, you cannot miss it.
D. When I worked in Britain, I missed my parents very much.
4. The writer is _____ about watching movies at home.
A. worried B. serious C. positive(肯定的) D. neutral(中立的)
5. What's the best title for the passage? _____
A. Enjoy Watching Movies in a Cinema.
B. Better to Watch a Movie in a Cinema or at Home.
C. Come to My Home and Watch a Movie.
