9. I'm Susan. I'm a slim (苗条的) girl. Many girls ask me about how to be slim. I never exercise and I like eating meat. There's only one reason behind it: my mom.
- My mom cooks every day, but she even can't cook a simple meal well. Our kitchen has been on fire many times. Twice this month! She's a disaster (灾难) in the kitchen. We ask her to stay out of the kitchen, but she never listens to us. She wakes up early every morning and goes home early after work. She cooks every meal for us. We have to eat what she makes — or we eat what we can. So all of my family are not fat.
- Last Saturday, Mom tried to cook chicken for dinner. The result was a burning (着火的) kitchen. Luckily, Dad did his best to save the family and put out the fire. Now, when Mom goes to the kitchen, I start to worry about our lives.
- Although we have a bad cook at home, our house is always full of people for lunch and dinner. I don't think they come for delicious food. They must enjoy the happy time at my home. In fact, my mom is warm, friendly and funny. I love her, though she can't cook well.
- Why is Susan slim?
A. She works hard.    B. She eats at home.    C. She exercises a lot.
D. She never eats meat.
  - What does Susan's mom hate (讨厌) to do?
A. To get up early in the morning.    B. To go home early after work.
C. To stay out of the kitchen.    D. To cook meals every day.
  - Which word might Susan want to use to describe (描述) last Saturday?
A. Scary.                      B. Relaxing.                      C. Boring.                      D. Meaningful.
  - Susan thinks many people come to her home to _____.
