14. I'm Jenny. I'm a movie lover and I want my kids to like movies, too. The first time I took my daughter, May, to the movie theater, she was 6 and the movie was Bambi. I chose it because I thought a cartoon movie would be good to her.

Everything was going just fine and Bambi was so lovely. However, when a man killed Bambi's mother my daughter became very sad and asked to go home. So we left in the middle of the movie. Later I chose movies more carefully and my daughter watched many great ones. Luckily, she likes movies as much as I do now.

My worry is: Are Cartoons really safe (安全的) for kids?

Once I sat on the sofa to watch a cartoon with my 8 - year - old son, Nick, I got dumbfounded when I saw a cartoon character was bleeding (流血) in front of us. The cartoon was like an action movie for adults (成人). The next time you take a kid to the movie theater, be careful. Maybe a cartoon isn't the best. You should take the time to watch it first (It's a habit with me.) Or the kid may get messages he or she isn't ready to get yet.

- (1) May wanted to leave in the middle of Bambi because _____.

A. make sure the movie theater is safe B. tell her kids what they will watch
C. ask about her kids' favorite D. watch the movie first
- (4) what does Jenny want to tell the readers?
A. Most cartoons are not safe for kids. B. Young kids shouldn't go to the movie theater.
C. Parents should watch the cartoons with their kids.
D. Parents should choose movies carefully for their kids.
15. It was Monday morning. Karen woke up with a headache (头痛). She watched too much TV the night before.
Before she got dressed, she found her favorite dress was dirty. She quickly put on a T-shirt and it was too big for her. It was in fact her brother's.
For breakfast, her egg wasn't there on the table. She wanted to eat some bread, but it was too hard. The milk was cold. She missed the school bus. She asked her dad to take her to school. In his car, she wasn't happy. She forgot her homework, and the teacher wasn't happy, either.
At lunch, she found her lunch box was left home. Her friend gave her some salad but she dropped (掉下) some of it on her T-shirt.
At P. E. class, she hurt (使受伤) her leg while running. The boy in front of her scared her with a snake when she was on the bus home. She was very afraid. By the time she got home, she just wanted to take a shower and go to bed. There was no hot water, because her brother had used it up. It was the worst day ever, so she went to bed, but she didn't know that her clock didn't work!
