三. 阅读理解。阅读A、B、C、D四篇材料，然后从各小题所给的四个选项中，选出最佳选项

12. It helps us understand the world better if we know a little geography and have some maps at hand. But with maps in Chinese only, misunderstanding is possible in studying world events. Chinese names are long, hard to pronounce and without meaning to a foreigner. For the opening of the country maps are important and helpful and needed badly.

I wish maps in various languages, such as those used in the United Nations, would come out and be sold in all bookstores open to Chinese.

- (1) The writer is mainly talking about _____.
- A. geography B. maps C. Chinese names
D. the opening of the country
- (2) Knowing a little geography and having some maps in Chinese only, a foreigner _____.
- A. can study world events easily B. can study world events without misunderstanding
C. can't study world events without misunderstanding
D. will feel joy in studying world events
- (3) In the United Nations people use maps in _____.
- A. foreign languages only B. Chinese only C. various languages D. English only 13. A driver stopped his car on a street side to have a rest. As he lay down in the seat and closed his eyes, a person came up and knocked(敲) at the window to ask the time. The driver opened his eyes and looked at his watch: " It's 8:05, "he said. Then he went to sleep again. But soon he was waken up (被叫醒) again because a second person was knocking at the window.

"Sir, do you know the time?" he asked. The driver looked at his watch again, and told him it was half past eight.

In this way, the driver thought he could not have a good rest, so he wrote a short note (纸条) and stuck (贴) it on the window for all to see. It said, "I don't know the time."

Again, he lay down in the seat for his sleep. A few minutes later, a third person came and began to knock at the window, "Hey, sir," he said. "It's a quarter to nine."

- (1) How many persons asked the driver about the time _____.
A. One B. Two C. Three D. Four
- (2) The third person knocked at the window to _____.
A. tell him what time it was B. ask him not to sleep C. see if the driver was sleeping
D. ask him the time
- (3) The driver in his car _____.
A. had a good sleep B. had no seat C. didn't have a good rest
D. always closed his eyes

14. An important question about eating out is who pays for the meal. If a friend of yours asks you to have lunch with him, you may say something like this, "I'm afraid it'll have to be someplace cheap, as I have very little money." The other person may say, "OK, I'll meet you at McDonald's."

This means that the two agree to go Dutch, that is, each person pays for himself. He may also say, "Oh, no. I want to take you to lunch at Smith's", or "I want you to try the Chinese dumplings there. They're great." This means the person wants to pay for both of you. If you feel friendly towards this person, you can go with him and you needn't pay for the meal. You may just say, "Thank you. That would be very nice." American customs about who pays for dates are much the same as in other parts of the world. In the old days, American women wanted men to pay for all the meals. But, today, a university girl or a woman in business world will usually pay her way during the day. If a man asks her for a dance outside the working hours, it means "Come, as my guest." So as you can see, it is a polite thing to make the question clear at the very beginning.

- (1) The passage tells us _____.
A. how to eat out B. where to eat out C. what to eat out D. who pays for the meal
 - (2) If you have little money _____.
A. you'll have a cheap meal B. you'll borrow some from others
C. you'll ask your friend to pay for your meal
D. you won't want your friends to ask you to dinner
 - (3) "Go Dutch" in this passage means _____.
A. 去饭馆 B. 就餐 C. 订餐 D. 各自付款
 - (4) In America, some girls and women _____ now.
A. ask men to pay for their meals B. try to pay for the men's meals
C. try to pay for their own meals D. never have anything outside
15. It was Mother's Day, but the young mother was a little unhappy, because she was 800 miles away from her parents. In the morning she phoned her mother to wish her a happy Mother's Day, and her mother told her about the beautiful lilacs (丁香) in the garden.

Later that day, when she told her husband about the lilacs, he said, "I know where we can find all that you want. Get the children and come on." So they went, driving down the country roads.

There on a small hill, they saw a lot of beautiful purple lilacs. The young woman ran quickly to enjoy the flowers. Carefully, she picked a few here and a few there. On their way home there was a smile on her face.

When they were passing a nursing home (养老院), the young woman saw an old granny (奶奶) sitting in a chair. She had no children with her. They stopped the car and the young woman walked to the old woman, put the flowers in her hands, and smiled at her. The old granny thanked her again and again. She smiled happily, too.

When the young mother came back to her car, her children asked her, "Who is that old granny? Why did you give our flowers to her?"

"I don't know her" their mother said. "But it's Mother's Day, and she has no children. I have all of you, and I still have my mother. Just think how much those flowers meant to her."

- (1) The young woman was a little unhappy on Mother's Day because_____.
A. she didn't have a present B. she was far away from her mother
C. she didn't know it was Mother's Day D. she wanted to see her father

C. her mother asked her to do so D. she was her mother
- (5) Which of the following is NOT true?
A. The young woman was kind. B. The young woman was understanding.
C. The young woman was friendly. D. The young woman was surprised.

16. Our earth is in trouble. Our drinking water is becoming dirtier, and the air is not as clean as before. People and factories are polluting the air, rivers and lakes and seas. You may think that there is nothing you can do to help. That's not true. There are many things you can do to help the earth.

Cars burn gasoline. This will produce a lot of CO₂, into the air. Some people believe that too much CO₂, is making the earth warmer than ever. (2)They think CO₂thins the clouds above us. The clouds keep us away from the strongest sunlight. So try to walk, ride a bike or a bus. And if you drive a car, drive at a steady speed. This can save some gasoline. The biggest energy use at home is for keeping (1) _____ or _____take air conditioner off when you don't need to use it. Use lights that save energy
