My name is Kate. I am a middle school student at an international school of English. I am so lucky that I have a chance to go to Canada this summer holiday to learn English and I stay there for about 70 days. I live with a Canadian family, the Greens. They are very kind and friendly. Before long, we become good friends. I can practice speaking English with them every day. That makes my English better. Sometimes I teach them Chinese. They teach me how to listen, speak, read and write in English. But it is mostly speaking. I find Canadian classes are a little different from our classes here. There are only about twenty students in the class. So the teachers can pay attention (注意力) to every student. Sometimes we can sit anywhere you like in the classroom. Teachers and students are like friends because we can learn from each other and we can ask our teachers questions freely during the class. I really like this kind of class.

- (1) Why does Kate go to Canada?

- (2) What are the Greens like?

- (3) What can Kate do to make her English better in the Canadian family?

- (4) How many students are there in Kate's class in Canada?

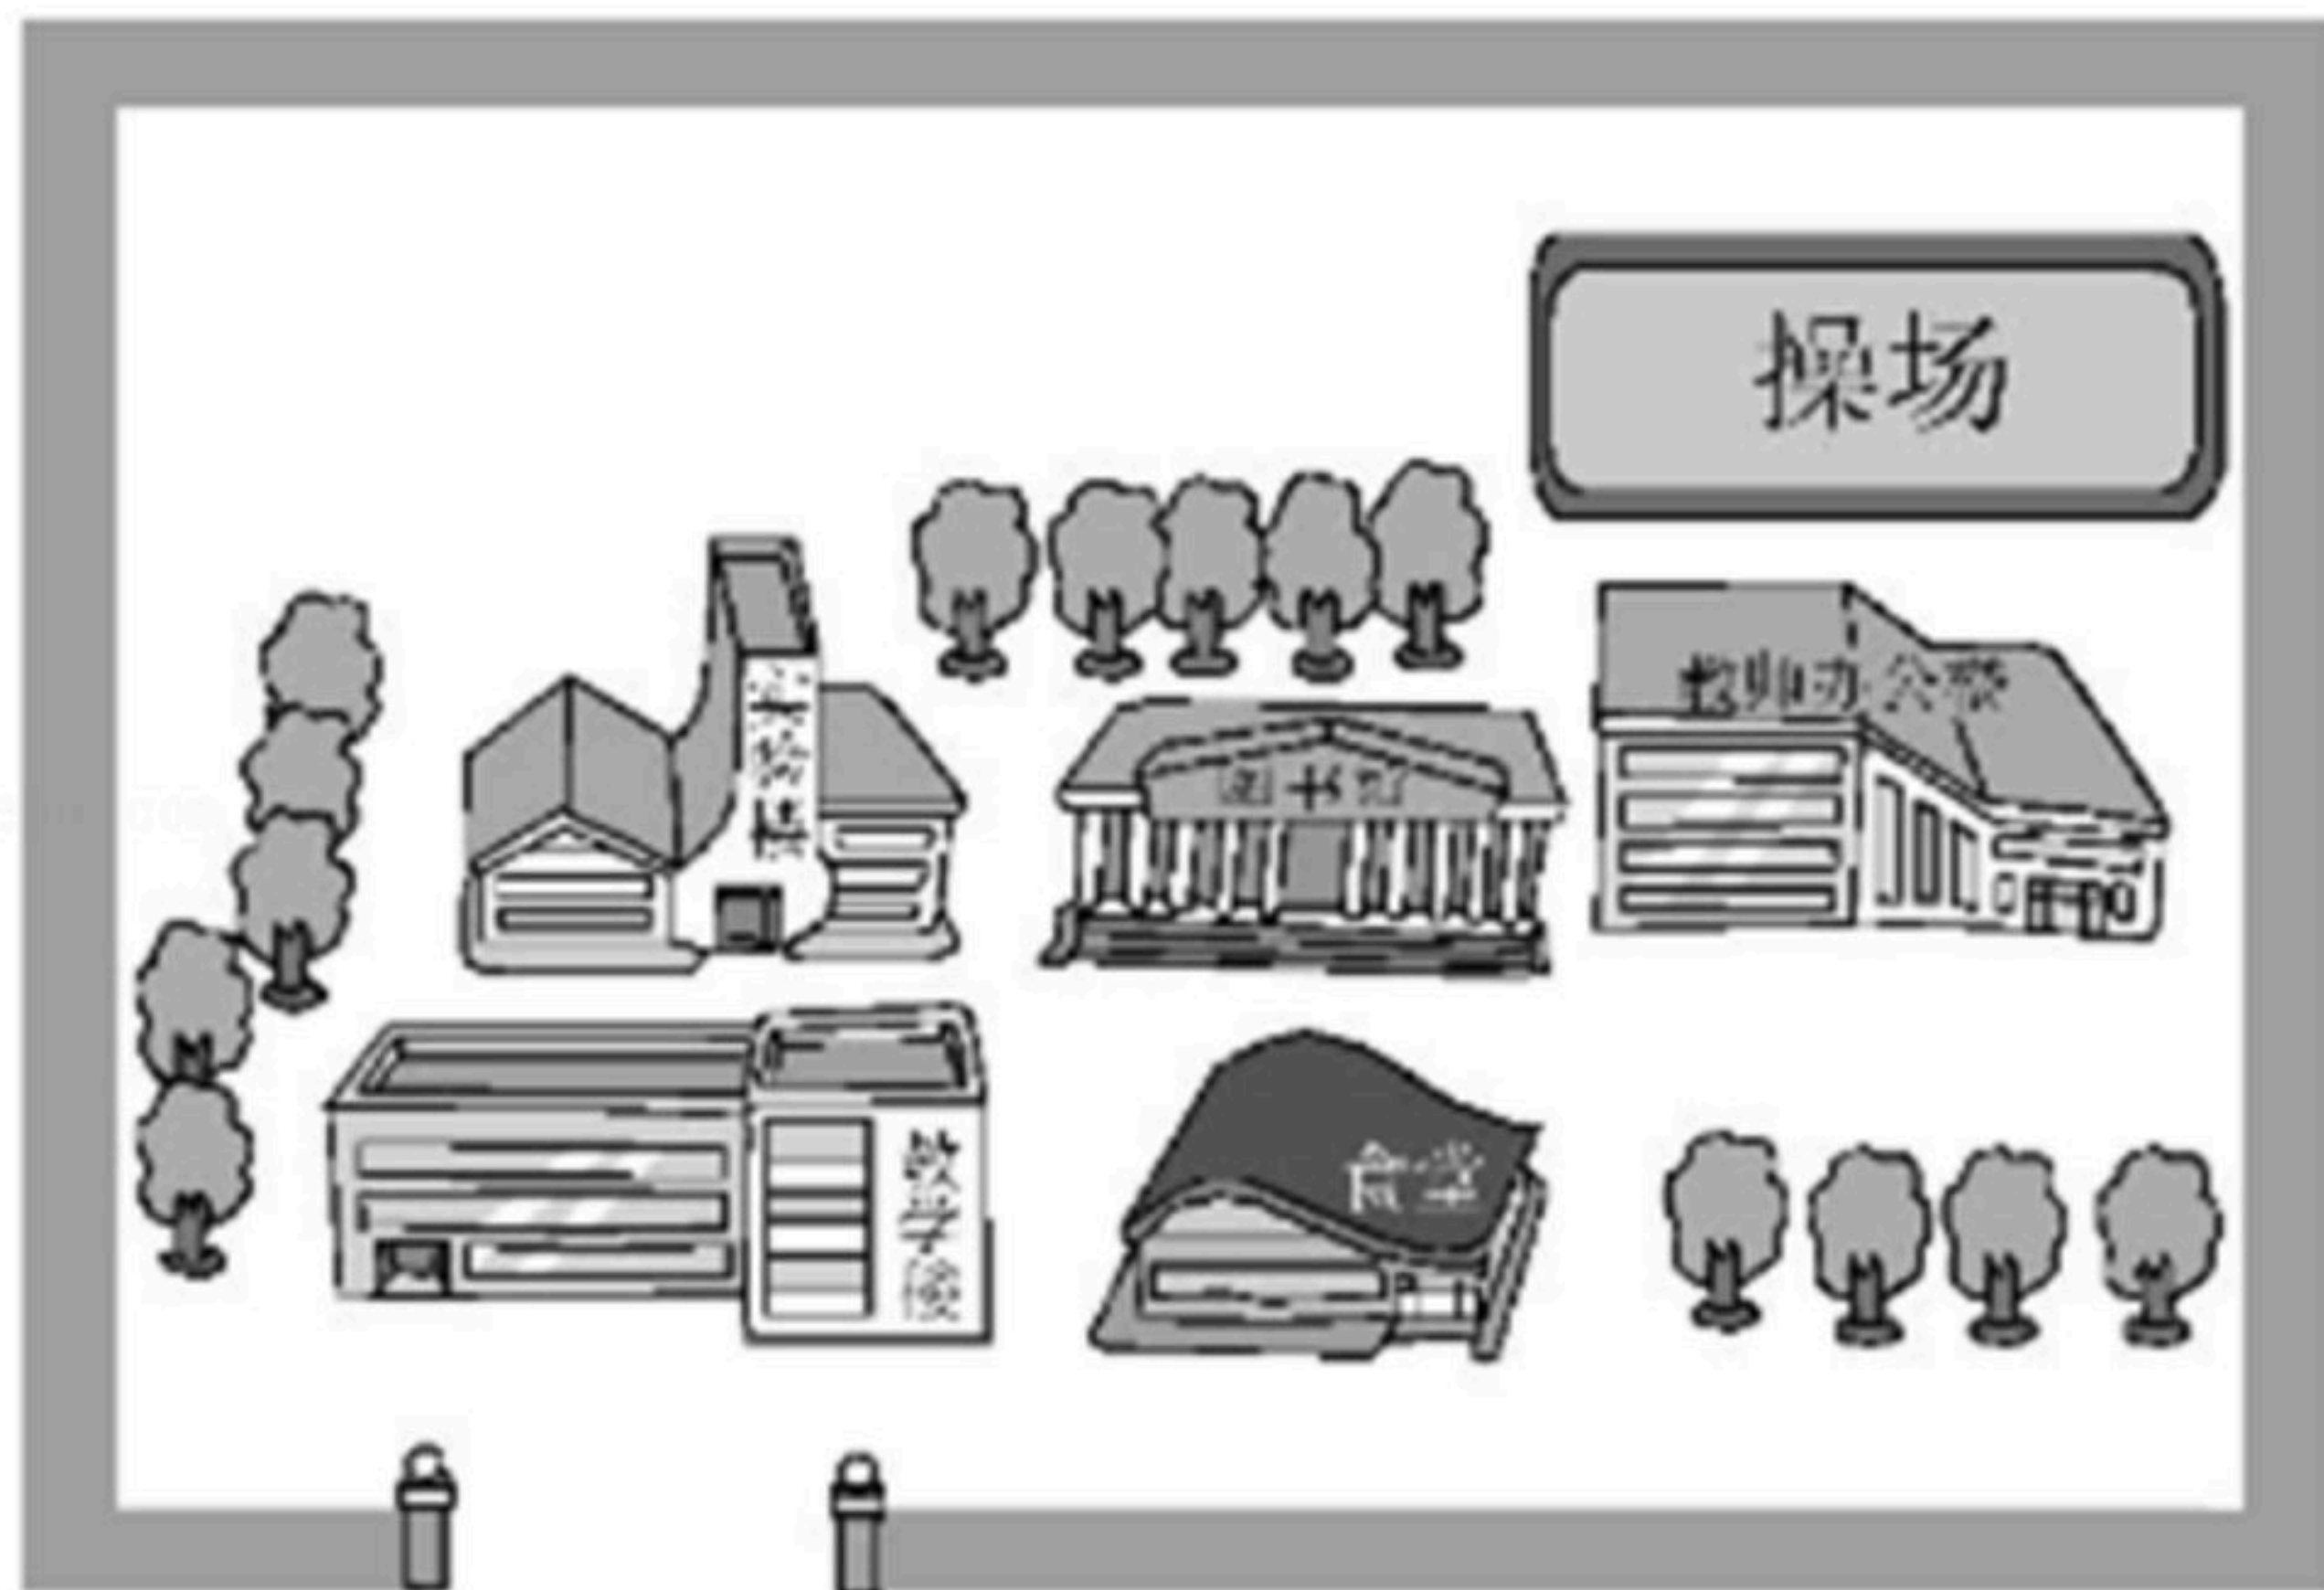

- (5) Why does Kate think the teachers and students are like friends?
