三、阅读理解（共2小题）

12. You must know Singles' Day (Nov. 11th) in China. Many people, probably even your parents stay up late that night. They go shopping online to get big discounts (折扣). Well, the US has something like it called Black Friday.

Black Friday is the Friday after Thanksgiving. It fell on November 27th this year. It is one of the biggest shopping days in the US. Stores offer deep discounts, but they have a limited number of items. People want to start shopping for Christmas gifts, so they go shopping on this day to save money.

It's called Black Friday because shops used to record (记录) sales with black ink. So when there was a lot of black ink on the page, it meant the shop sold a lot. Shopping on Black Friday takes place at actual (实体的) stores. It is different from Singles' Day. Starting around 4 a.m., thousands of people crowd outside of stores and malls. They stand in line for hours.

When the doors open, they rush to the shelves. Sometimes they fight over things because there were only a few left. Televisions and computers are some of people's favorite things to buy.

根据短文内容，判断下列句子正误。正确的用"A"表示，不正确的用"B"表示。

Do you know what it is? It is called Internet addiction (瘾). According to experts, the people with Internet addictions spend nearly thirty to forty hours online every week. They lose control (控制) of the time on the Internet.
- A study shows that about six to ten percent of Internet users become addicted. The teenagers spend more time on the Internet than with friends and family. That's why some experts worry most about young people. It is too difficult for the teenagers to keep away from the Internet. If they have one of the following symptoms, they should be more careful.
- ★Go out with the friends less and less.
  - ★They can't wait to get online again.
  - ★They decide to spend a short time online, but then spend more.
- How can we help the teenagers to solve this problem? Some experts advise that parents should limit (限制) their children's time for Internet use. If children can't do it, their parents can use some apps or tools (工具) on the computer to limit. Talking with them more and reading some interesting books with them can also help the teenagers.
- (1) If a person _____ maybe he has Internet addiction.
