14. Parents are the closest people to you in the world. But a lot of students have a problem: they feel they are not as close to their parents as before. They even don't think their parents are fair (公平) to them.

Some students say that their parents often talk a lot but never listen to them. Some say their parents don't allow them to play computer games while their classmates are doing it. These things make them very unhappy. Some students even leave home because they are afraid to tell their parents when they do something wrong. They usually think running away is the only choice (选择).

In fact, there is always a way to solve the problem. Here are some ideas:

Find a good time to talk with your parents. Don't be afraid to tell them your feelings.

Get help from your good friends or teachers.

Keep a diary to help you understand more about yourself and your feelings.

Show your parents you are growing up. Then they will learn you are not a small child any more.
