四、阅读理解。

18. Mr. Ma, a famous mental (心理的) doctor from Beijing once said at an important meeting, "Now many young students can have problems with their minds. Some students become worried because they have to study very hard. Others have trouble getting on well with people around them like their parents and classmates. Parents and teachers should care more about this problem."

Then Mr. Ma gave some examples. One patient (病人), a middle school student from Xi'an was doing badly in his lessons. He thought his teachers and friends often laughed at him, and he became so upset that one night he left his home without telling his parents. Another student, a schoolgirl from Shanghai, was very nervous before exams. While she was reading the exam paper, she couldn't think of anything to write.

A recent report from Jiefang Daily says about 18% of the young students in Shanghai have mental problems. They often feel worried and very unhappy. Unluckily many of them won't go and ask for help. Some think they will look stupid if they go to see a doctor. Others won't talk about their secrets.

At the end of the meeting, Mr. Ma provides some good ideas for young students:

※Talk to your parents or teachers often.

※Take part in group activities.

※Try to get on well with the people around you.

※ Go to see a doctor if you often feel unhappy.

20. Dear editor (主编),

My English teacher is very strict (严厉) with us. Several days ago, when we were having class, Tom asked me a question. But she thought we were speaking in class. She asked us to stand at the back of the classroom for a few minutes. This made me uncomfortable. After that, I feel nervous in her class, so I don't like her class. However, I really want to learn English well. What should I do?

Yours,

Mike

Dear Mike,

I am sorry you are having difficulty with your English class. Every teacher wants his or her students to study hard especially in class. So I think you should have a talk with your English teacher, and tell her what you were doing with Tom that day. If she knows your worries, maybe she will help you with your English. And she will be pleased to hear you want to learn English well. I believe when students are not trying as hard as they can, a teacher is forced (被迫) to take actions.

Yours,

Editor

(1) What's wrong with Mike?

A. He meets trouble with his parents.

B. He doesn't know how to get on well with his classmates.

C. He has a hard time with his English class.

(2) What happened in that English class?

A. Mike couldn't answer the question, so the teacher asked him to stand.

B. Mike had an argument with Tom about the question.

C. Tom asked Mike a question, and the teacher thought they were speaking.

(3) In the editor's opinion, why did the English teacher punish (惩罚) Mike?

A. Because the English teacher didn't think Mike was studying hard in class.

B. Because Mike answered the question wrong.

C. Because Mike had a fight with other students.

(4) What does the underlined phrase "take actions" mean in Chinese?

A. 采取行动 B. 参加活动 C. 表演

(5) What can we learn from the letters?

A. Mike wants to have a talk with his English teacher.

B. Mike dislikes English classes now, but he wants to learn English well.

C. Mike wants the editor to say something to his English teacher.
