Here's some advice.

Forget some numbers.

The numbers are about your age, weight and height. Let the doctor worry about them.

That's why you pay him or her.

Make happy friends.

People who are bright and happy should be your friends. Their happiness may help you change your bad mood, and your life will be better.

Keep learning.

Learn more about computers, gardening or other things. Take an interest in the world around you, and learn at least one new thing every day. Learning makes you become very clever.

Keep healthy.

Do more exercise and eat healthy food to keep healthy. If there is something wrong, go to see the doctor.

There are many other ways to stay young, such as enjoying the simple things, laughing often, telling people you love them and so on.
