三、阅读理解。

3. I'm Jenny, I'm a movie lover and I want my kids to like movies, too. The first time I took my daughter, May, to the movie theater, she was 6 and the movie was Bambi, I chose it because I thought a cartoon movie would be good for her.

Everything was going just fine and Bambi was so lovely. However, when man killed Bambi's mother, my daughter became very sad and asked to go home. So we left in the middle of the movie. Later I chose movies more carefully and my daughter watched many great ones. Luckily, she likes movies as much as I do now.

My worry is: Are cartoons really safe (安全的) for kids?

Once I sat on the sofa to watch a cartoon with my 8-year-old son, Nick. I got dumbfounded when I saw a cartoon character was bleeding (流血) in front of us. The cartoon was like an action movie for adults (成人)!

The next time you take a kid to the movie theater, be careful. Maybe a cartoon isn't the best. You should take the time to watch it first (It's a habit with me.). Or the kid may get messages he or she isn't ready to get yet.

- (1) May first went to the movie theater _____.
A. with her dad B. with her brother C. at the age of 6 D. at the age of 8
- (2) May wanted to leave in the middle of Bambi because _____.
A. she got hungry B. it was a boring movie C. the movie made her feel sad
D. she found Bambi was not lovely
- (3) What does the underlined word "dumbfounded" mean in Chinese?
A. 惊呆的. B. 欣慰的. C. 羞愧的. D. 平静的.
- (4) Before Jenny takes her kids to the movie theater, she will _____.
A. make sure the movie theater is safe B. watch the movie first
C. tell her kids what they will watch D. ask about her kids' favorite
- (5) What does Jenny want to tell the readers?
A. Most cartoons are not safe for kids. B. Young kids shouldn't go to the movie theater.

五、回答问题

7. On New Year's Day, my family decided to climb Mount Song. We hoped it could bring good luck to us for the whole year. It was cloudy in the morning. My grandparents, my parents and I had some dumplings for breakfast and then drove to Mount Song. At nine, we arrived at the foot of Mount Song and began to climb the mountain. It was cold, but we were all excited at first. We chose a road that visitors seldom took because we thought it would be fun. After two hours we found that the road conditions (路况) were getting worse. At half past twelve, we got to the top of the mountain. But it began to snow! All of us were cold and hungry. Soon we got to a small restaurant. It only sold instant noodles (方便面). One bowl of noodles was ten yuan and we had to pay for the hot water! Each of us had a bowl of noodles and gained some strength. There were no cable cars, so we had to walk down the mountain. Four hours later, we finally got to the foot of the mountain. What an unusual day!

- (1) What did the writer's family do on New Year's Day?
- (2) _____ How was the weather on New Year's Day in the morning?
- (3) _____ Why did they choose road that visitors seldom took?
- (4) _____ When did they get to the top of the mountain?
